The image displays musical notation for various instruments, organized into three rows. Each row shows the instrument name and its key signature. The notation includes a single note on a staff with a vertical line indicating the instrument's range. The first row shows saxophones (Sopran, Alto, Tenor, Baritone) with text explaining the relationship between the written note and the actual sound. The second row shows woodwinds (Flute, Alto Flute, Clarinet Bb, Clarinet A, Bass Clarinet). The third row shows brass instruments (Trumpet, Flugelhorn, Horn F, Trombone Tenor, Trombone Bass). The notation uses different clefs and key signatures to represent each instrument's range and tuning.
